ABOUT

Here is Rydell High's senior class of 1959: duck-tailed, hot-rodding "Burger Palace Boys' and their gum-snapping, hip-shaking "Pink Ladies" in bobby sox and pedal pushers, evoking the look and sound of the 1950s in this rollicking musical. Head "greaser" Danny Zuko and new (good) girl Sandy Dumbrowski try to relive the high romance of their "Summer Nights" as the rest of the gang sings and dances its way through such songs as "Greased Lightnin'," "It's Raining on Prom Night" and "Alone at the Drive-In Movie," recalling the music of Buddy Holly, Little Richard and Elvis Presley that became the soundtrack of a generation.

An eight-year run on Broadway and two subsequent revivals, along with innumerable school and community productions, place Grease among the world's most popular musicals.

DIRECTORS NOTE

Few things feel as nostalgic as Grease, especially for those of us from a certain era. My cousin Stacey and I watched it so often that we knew every line, song, and movement—or so we thought. I recently learned that we had some lyrics wrong and missed many of the nuances, which is pretty funny in hindsight. We were obsessed, and I'm sure many of you were too. When Grease was chosen as our next production, I knew working on it would take me straight back to childhood. It has been an absolute blast!

Throughout this process, I've often wondered what made this musical so iconic. John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John certainly played a part, but they alone don't explain its lasting success. Was it the music, the desire to be popular, the dream of a cool boyfriend and a close group of friends, or simply the fun of it all? I may not know the answer, but I do know I can't imagine a better cast or production team for this journey. They have brought everything we love about Grease to life, embodied the characters we grew up loving, and been truly amazing to work with.

I hope this production takes you back to a time when life felt less worrisome and serious—when pink hair was a phenomenon, "Summer Nights" felt real, and nothing was cooler than "Greased Lightnin'."

CAST

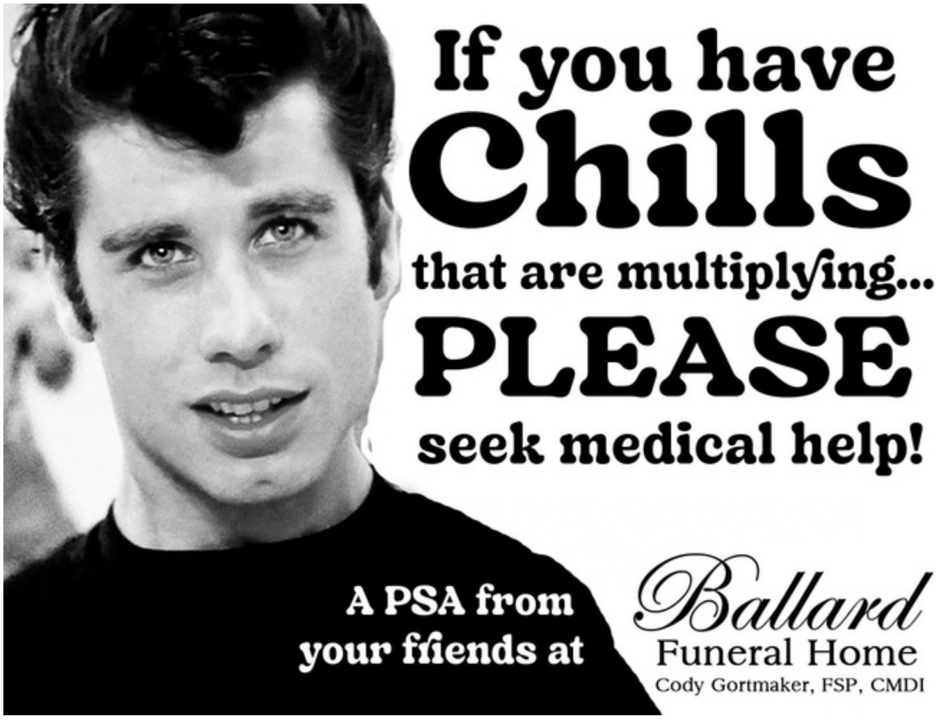

Cali Allen (ensemble) has been dancing with Rocky Mountain School of the Arts for almost 13 years. She has been in various performances such as the Nutcracker, Masterpieces of Ballet, and Spring Production. Cali started acting in 2018 with The Cody Theater Company, and has been in The Wild West Show, Addams Family, and The Wizard of Oz. She hopes you enjoy her performance tonight in her favorite musical, Grease!

Emma Allen (ensemble) has been dancing at Rocky Mountain School of the Arts for 12 years. Her favorite style of dance is contemporary. She participated in last year's Cody Theatre Company's production of "The Wizard of Oz". She hopes you enjoy the show!

Madison Dallman (ensemble) has been dancing with RMSA/RMDT since just before her third birthday. She has performed in numerous productions with Rocky Mountain Dance Theatre and the Cody Theatre Company, including Dracula, The Addams Family, The Wizard of Oz, and The Wild West Spectacular. Madison loves dancing and performing and is excited to take the stage in Grease!

Elizabeth Fernandez (ensemble)

Hannah Gould (Jan) is thrilled to return for her second year with Cody Theater Company, playing Jan in Grease! Last year, she made her theatrical debut as a tree in The Wizard of Oz, so she's especially grateful there are no trees in this production. When she's not on stage, you can usually find her singing karaoke, or spending time with her husband. She's excited to be part of this amazing cast and hopes you enjoy the show!

Glen Hardy (Vince Fontaine) is delighted to be part of this incredibly talented Grease cast. Last October he got to be a very good man, but a very bad wizard in the Wizard of Oz. Glen studied Theatre at Casper College, Southern Utah University, and South Coast Repertory. Favorite roles include The Wizard in "The Wizard of Oz", Norfolk in "A Man For All Seasons", and Officer Richards in "Some Great Divide".

Nikolis Henninger (Kenikie) is from Wisconsin and is honored to be performing here at the Cody Theatre in Wyoming! Nik graduated from The American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Los Angeles. He has been seen performing roles such as: Will Bennett in "Blue Stockings" and Sheriff Conroy Atkins in "Book of Days" Lastly, he'd like to thank his dad and mom, Aaron and Rachel, for supporting him to chase his dreams.

Azalia Houze (ensemble) was born and raised in Cody. She's grown up around The Arts, and has been dancing at Rocky Mountain School of the Arts for about ten years. She's participated in countless dance performances over the years, as well as The Addam's Family and The Wizard of Oz, through the Cody Theatre Company. She loves performing for her community, and is thrilled to be in another production this Halloween. Enjoy!!

Samantha Jones (Eugene) has been involved in theater and film her entire life. Latest as Yenta the Matchmaker in"Fiddler on the roof." She has been a Patsy Cline impersonator for over 20 years and in the film "Socks" as Socks, by Hurricane Deck Studios. "I love the character parts most of all and am so grateful and excited to play Eugene and work with the Cody Theater Company."

CAST

Daelyn Kaelberer (ensemble) has been dancing and taking piano at Rocky Mountain School of the Arts & Dance Theatre since she was 3. She's had the opportunity to perform in various roles with RMDT's Wild West Spectacular, The Nutcracker, and Spring Company. With The Cody Theatre Company she played a small part in Dracula and has been in the ensemble for Addams Family and The Wizard of Oz. The Arts have become a big part of her life and thanks her family and the studio for the many opportunities provided to her.

Kathryn Lowell (Sandy) is a Boston, MA based actor and director. She has found her "second home" in Cody, and has previously performed at The Cody Theatre in Wild West Spectacular (Louisa Cody/Vocal Captain), Nunsense (Sister Mary Amnesia), and The Wizard of Oz (Glinda/Aunt Em). Outside the theatre, she can be found exploring the great outdoors, curling up with a book, enjoying an iced latte, or some combination of the three!

Abigail Mars (Patty) is so excited to make her theatrical debut as Patty Simcox in Grease! In the past, she has accompanied on piano with productions of Cody Theatre Company's Nunsense and RMDT's Wild West Spectacular the Musical. She would like to thank her family for always supporting her, especially in her musical aspirations. She can often be found practicing piano or organ, and reading.

Rocky Mountain DANCE & THEATRE 501c3

Rocky Mountain Dance Theatre's Mission

"to introduce young people to the performing arts; encourage cultural development through public performance; and to inspire performers to learn and strive for excellence in technique, self-discipline, self-confidence, and artistic expression."

Melinda Martin (Cha-Cha) is thrilled to play in Grease, her 12th show in Cody. As the promotional marketer for Park County Libraries, she spends her days helping people discover their next adventure and her evenings bringing characters to life onstage. She loves watching a new audience experience a production for the first time and is grateful to a talented community that inspires her and gives her opportunities to share stories with them.

Sienna May (ensemble) has loved performing in the Nutcracker and The Wild West Spectacular, as well as joining the dance ensemble in The Cody Theatre Company's, 'The Addams Family' and 'The Wizard of Oz.' One of her favorite on-stage memories was performing as an Arabian dancer in the Nutcracker. Sienna is stoked to perform in Grease and is grateful for every opportunity to dance, perform, and share the joy of theatre with others.

Jessica McNeil (ensemble) is thrilled to be dancing her way into the world of Grease. She has been dancing with RMSA/RMDT for 23 years. Jessica loves training in ballet and contemporary. She has performed in numerous productions including RMDTs The Nutcracker as the guest artist and was most recently in the Wild West Spectacular. When she's not dancing, she can be found enjoying the mountains, playing with her birds, and adventuring with her dogs.

Hunter Miles (Danny) is a performer from Texas and ecstatic to be a part of this show! Hunter graduated from The American Academy of Dramatic Arts in L.A.. He has been seen performing roles such as Perchik in Fiddler on the Roof, Jack Kelley in Newsies and you may have seen him this summer as Wild Bill Hickok! He'd like to thank his mom, dad and his sisters for supporting him since day 1!

Angelina Mitchell (Frenchy) is a full time coffee pourer, pancake flipper, Cafe owner. She spends her days playing with her two boys, reading books, and spending time with family and friends. She loves to go on adventures and make memories!

Carlyn Murray (ensemble) is so excited to be a part of Grease! She is thrilled to perform as an ensemble member and bring the energy of Rydell High to the stage. Carlyn has always loved performing, especially through dance, and is grateful for every opportunity to share her passion with others. She would like to thank her family, friends, cast, and crew for their constant support. She hopes you enjoy the show as much as she does!

CAST

Amy Nance (Rizzo) is very excited to be fulfilling her dream role as Betty Rizzo. She had a blast making you laugh in Nunsense last Spring, and also playing the Cowardly Lion in The Wizard of Oz last fall. She is so happy to be a part of such a fun and professional setting. She thanks her biggest fans for encouraging her every show and being so supportive. Jay, love you always.

Alex Nicholson (Sonny & Teen Angel) practically lives for the theatre scene in Cody. He has years of experience in theatre productions, including Wizard of Oz, Fiddler on the Roof, and most recently Come From Away. Alex has experienced stagework from both on the stage and to the production level behind the curtains. Alex would like to dedicate his performance to his grandmother, long since passed, for all the nights spent watching Grease together.

Nick Philips (Doody) is excited to return to the stage as Doody in Grease. His previous role was Fyedka in Fiddler on the Roof with CCT in 2025. When he's not performing, Nick enjoys playing Dungeons & Dragons, where, much like theatre, he gets to step into the shoes of someone else. He works in a local elementary school's behavior program, where understanding emotions is a major part of the job. He thanks TCTC for this opportunity.

Congratulations to the Grease cast & crew!

Kateri Schneider (Marty) had been involved in numerous productions but this is her first solo musical. She has always enjoyed performing, acting, dance, and singing in the background. She is from Clark, Wyoming and lived in Cody about 7 years. She has been involved in Midsummer Nights dream as Hermia and Yvette in Clue. She hopes to continue acting and being involved in future productions.

Evan Wambeke (Roger) is a poet and actor from Cody, Wyoming. His other recent roles include Buffalo Bill in the Wild West Spectacular (for which he was awarded 2025 Best Performer in a Musical from BroadwayWorld Montana) and Jesse Kiplinger in Plaza Suite. His poetry has appeared in The Meadowlark Review, The Twin Bill, Paranoid Tree Press, Rawhead, and The Academy of American Poets. More of his poetry can be found at: evanwambeke.com

Ted Wambeke (Miss Lynch) is fit for the role of Miss Lynch and has some knowledge of how teachers think, as he is a retired eductor of over 40 years! Other credits at The Cody Theater include “Clem” in Rocky Mountain Dance Theatre’s “Wild West Spectacular - the Musical,” Uncle Henry in “Wizard of Oz”, Dr. Einstein, in “Arsenic and Old Lace,” and Roy Hubley in “Plaza Suite.” Thanks to Ann for her encouragement and understanding.
